

Army Women's Invitational

A Brief History (From a publication of the HJGA)

The late Edna Jackola virtually "owned" the Army Women's Invitational at the height of her competitive career—winning eight championships between 1960 and 1969.

Martha Young won the maiden tournament in 1957, then it was Army nurse Amie Amizich in 1958 and 1959 before Jackola took the next three. No tournaments were held in 1963 and 1978. Jackola prevailed again in 1965, 1967 and 1968.

Lenore Muraoka, competing out of the University of Hawaii, plucked the first of her four Army Women's Invitational titles in 1975 by edging Tura Nagatoshi after tying at 156. She followed with 78-76-154 in 1976, shot 78-72-150 in 1977, and 77-76-153 in 1979.

Lynne Winn chalked up three straight championships, 1980-82 to join Jackola, Muraoka and Amizich as multiple winners of the Army Women's Invitational.
